For Pain

Take a Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pill, and the Pain will disappear Like
Magic.

Not by paralyzing the nerves and muscles, like opium, morphine, cocaine, and other dangerous drugs, but by increasing the natural secretions.

This action is obtained as a result of modern discoveries in medicine, making it possible to relieve pain without bad after-effects.

You can safely depend upon Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills to relieve and cure such pains as Neuralgia, Headache, Stomach-ache, Menstrual Pains, Rheumatism, Backache, Toothache, etc.

They will also, by their calming action on the nerves, almost instantly relieve such distressing feelings as Diseases, Car-Sickness, Indigestion, Irritability, Sleeplessness, Nervousness, etc.

Not merely do they relieve, but they also absolutely cure, because by per-serving in their use, you do away with the cause.

Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills are guaranteed that first package will benefit, or your money back. Never sold in bulk.
"I am thankful for the good Dr.
Miles' Anti-Pain Pills have done for me. Ever since the war I have had spells of severe throbbing headache, caused by exertion, until six years ago. I began taking Anti-Pain Pills the first remedy that ever gave me relief. Since then I have not had one hard attack, because I take a Pill and it overcomes the difficulty."—GEO.

The Hen.

Poets sing of robin, blackbird and lark; prophets and sages pour forth praise to oriole, mocking bird and nightingale. But not since Eden was made vocal by song of winged and feathered beauty has line been written or couplet sung to the venerable and industrious, the wise and profitable old hen. Yet, who does not, at this season especially, recognize the hen's value. This is the period in which she is most active, yielding vast harvests of eggs and poultry, which bring enormous returns to the farmer.

In 1900 the total value of all fowls on farms at $85,794,996.
These produced in a single year poultry that sold for $136,891,877, and eggs that brought in $144, 280,370—a total of $281,178,247.
The investment produced an income of 400 per cent. The average yield of eggs per hen is 120 but a yield of 254 for a single hen in one year has been recorded.

We often hear of the old bird songs, and of the old bird and meadow lark, and of the old bird by the vision of a robin, a mocking bird. We desire to see the old bird so protected that it will be of every line, color and melody gift shall increase and multiply past countless. We want to see the old bird forget the humble but industrious hen. How proudly she cackles over every new laid egg! How very maternal that cluck as she gathers her brood about her! The music of the hen fills the farmyard with delight and promise. Her song means nuggets of gold to her owner.

Three-fourths of all the eggs laid in the United States are produced between March 1 and July 1. This is, therefore, the hen season. We should treat that modest bird of plenty and prosperity with consideration and tenderness. May her numbers and her harvests increase and multiply.—Louisville Herald.

Why Suffer From Rheumatism?
Why suffer from rheumatism when one application of Chamberlain's Pain Balm will relieve the pain? The quick relief which this liniment affords rest and sleep possible, and that is worth many times its cost. Many who have used it hoping only for a short relief from suffering have been happily surprised to find that after while the relief became permanent.
Mrs. V. H. Leggett, of Yon Yon, Tenn., writes: "I am a great sufferer from rheumatism, all over from head to foot, and Chamberlain's Pain Balm is the only thing that will relieve the pain." For sale by Jackson Drug Co.

Causes of Appendicitis.
Chill, imperfect mastication and the excessive use of aperients, according to Dr. Joseph Kidd in an article in the Nineteenth Century, are the chief causes of appendicitis.
As all these are causes readily guarded against and the guarding against them will also conduce to general health and happiness, there seems to be no reason why intelligent people should not aid in banishing one of the most dangerous of modern diseases.

The Horses That Come High.
Last year in this country six horses earned more than $50,000 each on the turf. This reminds us of the old story of the young man who was scolded for wasting his money on fast horses. He replied, "It was the slow, not the fast, ones that were responsible for my downfall."—Boston Herald.

Wedding Economy.

The practical side of a wedding, the problem of bringing the festivities within a reasonable expenditure, is given consideration in a carefully written paper in the June Delineator, which contains also suggestions for wedding cookery that will be appreciated by those who are interested.
Various other items of domestic value are given in the form of recipes under the headings "Luncheon Dishes," "Spinech and its Hygienic Value," and "Unique Decorative Desserts," and Isabel Gordon Curtis adds a chapter on canning fruit in "The Making of a Housewife." House plans and house-furnishing ideas and seasonable gardening suggestions are other features that will appeal to home makers.

A Good Suggestion.

Mr. C. B. Wainwright of Lemon City, Fla., has written the manufacturers that much better results are obtained from the use of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy in cases of pain in the stomach, colic and cholera morbus by taking it in water as hot as can be drunk. That when taken in this way the effect is double in rapidity. "It seems to get at the right spot instantly," he says. For sale by Jackson Drug Co.

Devil Losses Scent.

Representative Dayton of West Virginia says that a negro preacher in his state preaches the doctrine that no person can be saved unless dipped under the water. Recently the son of Ham illustrated one of his sermons by telling this:

"Once I was out hunting on the mountains, an I saw a great big buck come bookery-book down the mountain side. Dat buck was followed by the dogs, bow-wow-wow, just as hard as they could clip it.

"De buck jumped into South branch, swummed across, an' de dogs come to de river an' barked an' barked, but dey done loss de trail, for de buck done loss de scent off his feet by jumpin' in de river. Den de dogs turn dere tails an' go back up de mountain side.

"Jis so it am, brederen, wid us, whites an' blacks, Dinikrats and Publicans. If we get in de water an' wash our sins away de debil losses scent. Jus so we gits save home ter glory an' chuses our own musical harps to sing psalms."— Washington Times.

When e'er you feel impending ill,
And need a magic little pill, No other one will fill the bill Like DeWitt's Little Early Risers.

The Famous Little Pills EARLY RIS-ERS cure Constipation, Sick Headache, Biliousness, etc. They never gripe or sicken, but impart early rising energy.
Good for either children or adults. J.
C. P. Jones, Chief Burgess, Milesburg Borough, Pa., says: "I never used pills in my family during the forty years of housekeeping, that gave such satisfactory results as DeWitt's Little Early Risers." Sold by M. S. Crain.

The Turk's Reply.
According to President Francis, the brightest thing said on the grounds during the St. Louis fair was uttered by one of the attendants of the Turkish mosque. When an elderly spinster fell into conversation with him and, showing the customary interest in his spiritual welfare, remarked, "I hope you go to church every Sunday like a Christian." "No, madam," he replied, "I go every day, like a Turk."

This calls to mind the story of the traveler in a Mohammedan country who asked his guide if it was safe to leave certain baggage exposed without a guard. "Why, of course," replied the guide wonderingly.
"There isn't a Christian within thirty miles."—Denver Republican.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy
The Very Best.

"I have been using Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and want to say it is the best cough medicine I have ever taken." says Geo. L. Chubb, a merchant of Harbin, Manch. There is no question about its being the best, as it will cure a cough or cold in less time than any other treatment. It should always be kept in the house ready for instant use, for a cold can be cured in much less time when promptly treated. For sale by Jackson Drug Co.

A Trimmer.
Richard Olney was attacking that whiskey spirit which he has very dearly termed the war bacillus, and in the course of his attack he had occasion to refer to a certain diplomat.

While Mr. Olney was speaking a man with bow legs passed and saturated.

"There goes Hunt," said Mr. Ol-ney. "A more bowlegged man never lived than he." Then, going back to the diplomat, he resumed:

"The trouble with this diplomat is that he is all things to all men.
With A he is a Methodist, with B he is a Protestant, with C he is a Presbyterian and, with Jove, with Hunt he is bowlegged."—Baltimore Herald.

The Printer's Devil.

Aldus Manutius, a printer in Venice to the holy church and the doge, employed a negro boy to help him in his office. The boy was believed to be an imp of Satan and went by the name of the "printer's devil." In order to protect him from persecution and confuse a foolish superstition Manutius made a public exhibition of the boy and announced that any one who doubted him to be flesh and blood might come forward and pinch him to make sure. The mistaken impression was removed, but before this time the name "printer's devil" had been attached to the boy and was thenceforth applied generally to the boyish assistants in a printing office.

Strictly Genuine.

Most of the patent medicine testimonials are probably genuine. The following notice recently appeared in the Atchafalpa (Kan.) Globe: "Joe Tack, a well known engineer, running on the Missouri Pacific between Wichita and Kiowa lately appeared in a big one, with a picture, and when he was in this office to-day, we asked him about it. He says he had terrible pains in his stomach, and thought he had cancer.
His druggist recommended Kodol and he says it cured him. He recommended it to others who were also cured." Kodol Dyspepsia Cure digests what you eat and cures all stomach trouble.
Just as surely as the sun shines your stomach can be brought back to its originally pure condition and life sweetened by this lasting and truly the greatest digestant known. Sold by M.
S. Crain.

Well Provided.

"When? Barnstormer must have found food for thought in the dramatic editor's article this morning."
"Food? I should say a full meal.
He got a roast and also his desserts."
—Catholic Standard and Times.

Poor, but Candid.

"Are you looking for work?"
"No," answered the poor but candid man: "I'm looking for money, but I'm willing to work, because I can't get it otherwise."—Exchange.

Man's Unreasonableness

Is often as great as woman's. But Thos.
S. Austin, Mgr. of the "Republican," of Leavenworth, Ind., was not unreasonable when he told his wife to allow the doctors to operate on her cancer, instead of waiting for the cancer to eat her out.
He concluded to try Electric Bitters. His wife was then so sick, she could hardly leave her bed, and five [a] physicians failed to relieve her. After taking Electric Bitters, she was perfectly cured, and can now perform all her household duties." Guaranteed by Jackson Drug Co., price 50c.

The Lawyer's Habit.

The legal formality of addressing a court sticks to many a lawyer of congressional preference. It is nothing unusual to hear an impassioned orator in the house, pausing in his argument or weeping in upon the argument of another, exclaim, "Now, if your honor please." Of course the house always marks the slip with a burst of loud laughter. In the senate, where there are also many lawyers, it is rarer to hear the familiar words because debate there is more sedate.

Ward Off Old Age.

A successful way to ward off the approach of old age is to maintain a vigorous digestion. This can be accomplished by eating only food suited to your age and occupation, and when an disorder of the stomach appears take a dose of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets to correct it. If you have a weak stomach, or are troubled with indigestion, you will find these Tablets to be just what you need. For sale by Jackson Drug Co.

A Bishop's Fall.

Bishop Peck of the Methodist church was a large man, weighing over 350 pounds. While on a tour and stopping at the residence of a presiding elder the bishop turned over in his bed and the entire furniture collapsed, dropping him to the floor with a tremendous thud. The presiding elder rushed upstairs, calling: "What is the matter, bishop? Is there anything I can do for you?" "Nothing, is the matter," answered the bishop, "but if I don't answer the call to breakfast tell your wife to look for me in the cellar."

Evaluation of the Skate.

The earliest known skates were those roughly shaped from the cannon bone of a horse or cow, and Scandinavian archaeologists claim an antiquity of 1,600 years for these. The wearer of these rude skates obtained speed not by a stroke of the foot, but by pushing himself along with a piked staff. Skates made entirely of wood were next introduced. These were followed by wooden ones shod with flat strips of iron.
Then were gradually developed bladed skates, and finally experts evolved the Fog type, Norwegian racer and figure skates of the present day.—London Standard.

"THE MAN IN GRAY"

As its offering of respect to the Confederate Veterans Reunion the Henderson Route is distributing a beautiful three color print, entitled "The Man in Gray," which is receiving widespread admiration throughout the South.

The picture, which is printed from an extra line etching, reproduced from an original drawing by Mr. Robert M.
H. O., the celebrated artist of the foursquare Courier-Journal, is 16x22 inches, and is printed on fine enameled paper, sufficiently heavy for use unframed, but equally suitable for framing.

It is executed in the three cardinal colors of the Confederacy—gray, blue and red—on a white background, and has been rightly termed by "a gem."

They are enclosed in straw-bound mailing tubes for safe transmission by mail, thus avoiding any possibility of breakage and insuring safe delivery.

Send five (red) stamps to L. J. Irwin, Louisville, Ky., for this beautiful production, and after you receive it, whether you are from the North or South, you will be an enthusiastic admirer of the "Hero of the Gray."
